No. 315.—

In exercise of the powers conferred by rules 38 to 41, 42 and 44 of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, the Local Government are hereby pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

Scope and application of rules.

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in any rules for the time being in force which are either made by the Local Government in exercise of the powers conferred by the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules or which may be cancelled or modified by them in exercise of such powers, the following rules shall, where the Local Government by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette so direct, apply where it is or has been decided otherwise than as a measure of retrenchment to reduce the total permanent strength of any service under their administrative control.

Authority empowered to discharge or revert.

2. No person holding any post shall be discharged or reverted except by the authority having power to appoint to such post.

Unit for selection of persons for discharge or reversion.

3. Where the number of holders of certain specified posts in a service is to be reduced the unit for purposes of selection of persons for discharge or reversion shall be the group of holders of equal or higher posts, if any, in that service to which appointments or promotions are made by the same authority:

Provided that the group shall not include the holder of any post to which the holders of the said specified posts are not normally transferred or promoted:

Provided further that the group shall not include any person who—

(i) has acquired a right, whether under statutory rules or under any orders applicable to him, to be admitted to another service, or

(ii) is a probationer for another service, until he is reverted to the unit.

Order of selection for discharge or reversion from the unit.

4. Persons shall be selected for discharge or reversion from each unit in the following order, namely:—

(1) probationers, in order of juniority, juniors first;

(2) full members who have attained the age of 55 years in order of seniority, seniors first;

(3) full members who have completed thirty years of service qualifying for pension but have not attained the age of 55 years—in order of seniority, seniors first;

(4) approved probationers in order of juniority, juniors first;

(5) full members not coming under any of the above categories in order of juniority, juniors first.

Explanation.—In this rule, juniority or seniority as between officers shall be determined—

(i) in cases falling under clause (1) according to the date of first appointment to the unit;

(ii) in cases falling under clauses (2) and (3) according to the length of service qualifying for pension;

(iii) in cases falling under clause (4) according to the date on which the probation was completed or was deemed to have been completed satisfactorily; and

(iv) in cases falling under clause (5) according to the position in the service list.

Appeal against discharge or reversion.

5. Any person who is discharged or reverted under these rules, shall, within one month after the date on which he was informed of the order of discharge or reversion, be entitled to appeal against such order on the ground that these rules have not been complied with, to the authority to whom an appeal from an order dismissing him would lie.

Order of re-employment.

6 (1) (a) When candidates are required for a post in any unit as defined in rule 3, selection for appointment thereto shall be restricted to persons discharged or reverted under these rules from such posts in the unit otherwise than under clauses (2) and (3) of rule 4, so long as such persons desirous of such appointment are available:

Provided that no person who has been discharged shall be appointed under this clause unless he foregoes the benefits or privileges, if any, derived by him on discharge to such extent as the Local Government may, by general or special order, direct.

Provided also that if the appointing authority considers it undesirable that any specified person should be appointed under this clause—

(i) in case such person on the date of his discharge or reversion had not acquired a right to be admitted to the unit, the appointing authority, shall be at liberty not to select him; and

(ii) in other cases, the appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and communicated to the person concerned, refuse to appoint him; and an appeal shall lie from such refusal as if it were an order of dismissal.

(b) Appointment of candidates to any unit. In cases falling under clause (a) shall be made in the reverse order to that in which they were discharged or reverted from such unit under these rules.

(c) Any person eligible for re-employment under this sub-rule shall be entitled to appeal to the authority to whom an appeal from an order dismissing him would lie, on the ground that some person who should have been re-employed later has been re-employed before him. Such appeal shall be preferred within one month after the date on which such other person was re-employed.

(2) When the supply for a unit of all persons referred to in clause (a) of sub-rule (1) has been exhausted persons who have been discharged or reverted under these rules from other similar units in the same service otherwise than under clauses (2) and (3) of rule 4 shall, if available and desirous and suitable in the opinion of the appointing authority concerned and subject to the first proviso to clause (a) of sub-rule (1) be given preference over candidates who would otherwise be appointed.

(3) Any person discharged under these rules who before such discharge was a full member of or approved probationer in a service, shall be eligible for appointment to any other service by transfer as if he was a full member of the service from which he was discharged.

(4) Any period of probation undergone by any such person who was a probationer at the time of his discharge or reversion shall count towards the total period of probation prescribed in the rules or orders governing the service.

7. These rules may be called the Madras Reductions in the Cadres of Services Rules, 1934.

EXPLANATORY INSTRUCTIONS

1. Scope of the rules.—These rules are applicable only where it is or has been decided to reduce the total strength of a service otherwise than as a measure of retrenchment. These rules will come into operation in any such case only if the Local Government so direct by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette. They are applicable to all services under the rule making control of the Local Government whether or not statutory rules for them have actually been issued.

2. The rules will operate only where it is found that some officers holding permanent posts (whether in a substantive or officiating capacity) have to be discharged or reverted to effect the reduction.

3. Where there are no permanent vacancies or the number of such vacancies is smaller than the number of posts abolished, the question arises as to what the unit is for the selection of persons for discharge or reversion. Broadly speaking, the unit will comprise the holders of all posts in the service equal to or higher than those abolished, to which appointments and promotions are normally made by the same authority, but it will not include a person who has acquired a right to be appointed to another service or as a probationer therein, until he is reverted to his unit.

4. In no case can the unit be larger than a service. A provincial service and the corresponding subordinate service cannot therefore be combined into a unit. Where all posts in a service are similar and all appointments and promotions thereto are made by the same authority, the service will be the unit, for example, the Madras Civil Service (Executive Branch) and the Madras Engineering Service may each form a unit. Where a service consists of different groups of posts among which, however, transfers and promotions are normally made by the same authority, all the groups together may form a single unit.

5. If there is only one post of the kind abolished under one appointing authority, the unit will consist of the post only and the holder of that post will have to be discharged or reverted as the case may be.

6 Order of discharge—(Rule 4).—Where an officer has to be discharged or reverted from a particular unit, the selection of that officer should be made in the order specified in rule 4; where such selection falls on an officer who holds a lien on another post, he should be reverted to that post and not discharged.

7. Clauses (1) and (4) apply to persons promoted from a lower to a higher post in the same service and the period during which an officer is officiating in the higher post will be regarded as probation in such higher post. The period of such probation will be a total period of two years on duty within a continuous period of three years.

8 If the reduction ordered is not attained by the operation of clauses (1) to (4), a permanent member of the service will have to be discharged or reverted in the order of juniority under clause (5).

9 Government desire to emphasize that the provisions regarding the giving of notice or compensation contained in the Civil Service Regulations or any orders for the time being in force in connexion with the discharge of Government servants, should be strictly complied with. It is conceivable that during the period of notice a casualty may occur which will render it unnecessary to bring the discharge into effect; in that case the notice may be cancelled.

10. Re-employment (Rule 6).—Government desire it to be clearly understood that so long as officers who have been discharged from a unit are available for service, they should be re-entertained when possible. For this purpose appointing authorities must maintain lists of persons discharged or reverted in the order in which they are entitled under rule 6 to re-employment in the unit. If, however, the appointing authority, for any reason considers it undesirable to re-employ any person who held the post substantively or has acquired a right to substantive appointment to it in due course, he may refuse to re-employ him. The reasons for such refusal should be recorded in an order in writing and a copy of such order should be communicated forthwith to the person concerned who will be entitled to appeal against the order as if it were an order of dismissal.

11. After the list of all the persons discharged or reverted from the unit has been exhausted, persons discharged from other similar units should be re-employed as far as possible. Such re-employment will, of course, be subject to the same conditions as those governing the re-employment of officers discharged from the unit. This will enable a clerk discharged in one district or department to be re-employed in another district or department. When the number of persons discharged from a unit is so large that they are not likely to be re-absorbed in a reasonable time, the appointing authority should in deserving cases endeavour to help them to obtain re-employment in Government service in similar posts for which they are eligible and suitable.

12. The order in which officers will be taken back will be in the reverse order to that in which they were reverted or discharged. Thus if the order of discharge was in the order—A, B, C, D—D will be re-employed first, then C, then B and last of all A. This will be the case even if D had been actually discharged before A, B and C instead of after them. Persons discharged under clause (5) will be re-employed first in the reverse order of discharge, then persons under clause (4) and lastly those discharged under clause (1).

13. The rules do not provide how the period of interruption due to discharge of a candidate should, on re-employment, be treated for purposes of leave, pension, increments, etc., the extent to which his previous service should count for these purposes and what his initial pay should be on re-employment. These matters will be governed by the Fundamental Rules and the Civil Service Regulations. Initial pay will in such cases be ordinarily fixed at the minimum of the time-scale of the post in which the candidate is re-employed.

14. It should be remembered that consultation with the Madras Services Commission where such consultation is normally necessary is not required with regard to re-employment of officers under this rule, as the re-employment is effected notwithstanding anything contained in the rules made by the Local Government and consequently overrides the rules providing for such consultation. But Government, however, desire that in such cases lists of persons who have been discharged or reverted from any service and of those who may be re-employed under these rules should be furnished to the Madras Services Commission together with such other particulars as Government may direct.

Many loan applications have been received from people in the Alur taluk and two Revenue Inspectors have been appointed for their disposal. The situation in twenty-nine villages of the Sirugappa taluk is not good and arrangements have been made to start famine test works near Sergeri on the 17th December. Kolur and Kurnagodu firkas of the Bellary taluk are affected and a famine test work is proposed to be opened near Kurnagodu on the 17th December. The affected villages in the Hospet taluk are mostly in the Narayanadevarakeri firka and are of red soil; the harvest of the early crops was very poor in these villages. Labourers do not find sufficient employment in the dry villages of firkas of Bommanahal and Kasekal in Rayadrug taluk.

Stocks of food-grains sufficient for the present. Five test works have been ordered to be opened. Three test works on vigorous conditions are now being started in different parts of the district to test the necessity for famine relief on a large scale. The matured crops are being gathered in some taluks, but the yield will be very small.

CUDDAPAH.

Water-supply sufficient for drinking; supply sufficient for irrigation except in the taluks of Pulivendla and Sidhout and parts of the Rayachoti taluk. Sowings so far restricted. Standing crops fair. Water-supply sufficient for drinking; supply generally sufficient for irrigation except in parts of the taluks of Palmaner, Vayalpad, Chandragiri, Madanapalle and Chittoor. Sowings so far satisfactory though less than last year for wet crops. Standing crops generally fair; they have improved in the affected parts of the taluks of Madanapalle and Vayalpad on account of the recent light showers. Pasture available. Fodder generally sufficient except in parts of the Vayalpad taluk. Condition of cattle generally good. The condition of the labouring classes is generally good in the affected parts of the taluks of Vayalpad and Madanapalle, labourers are employed in road making and other local fund and minor irrigation works. In the affected areas of the Vayalpad taluk, there have been stray cases of emigration to other parts in search of employment. Prospects generally fair except in parts of the taluks of Madanapalle and Vayalpad. More rains are needed. In the affected parts of the taluks of Vayalpad and Madanapalle there were light showers during the week; it was too scanty to bring in supplies to irrigation sources though it was beneficial to the standing crops; ryots are attempting to plough for second crop cultivation here and there.
